THE fire record of yesterday was rather sultry.

LIBERTY will enlighten the world in New York harbor to-night.

THE St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad line will soon be forging ahead through Indian Territory.

THE Santa Barbara Press says that the Republicans of that county will vote almost to a unit against the Heath amendment.

CUTTING, the "bone" which Uncle Sam and Mexico thought of picking, is about to turn filibuster. Next time we will not ask for his return.

THE Express is in a state of mind about our charge of treason towards one of the county nominees. All the same THE TIMES knows what it is talking about.

THE San Francisco Bulletin asserts that George Hearst has sent out dispatches to his local lieutenants all over the State to trade everything, even the State ticket itself, for the Legislature.

The Express refers to Captain A. M. Thornton as "nominee for Township Constable." What's the use of publishing the full ticket at the head of your editorial column if you never read it?

A REPUBLICAN writes from Fruitland to THE TIMES to inquire about the legal modus operandi of "scratching" tickets. The way to scratch is to scratch. It can be done either with pencil or pen.

THE Cheyenne chief Crazyhead was arrested a few days ago for horse-stealing, and it seems that another Indian war has been precipitated, thereby. Crazyhead and his braves are good subjects for the Florida Immigration Society.

The W. C. T. U. Convention.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—At the opening of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union Convention this morning it was urged that a memorial be sent to Congress against the dispensing of beer to inmates of the soldiers' and sailors' homes. The report of the Committee on Resolutions being taken up, the resolution on Mormonism was carried by a rousing vote, in which every delegate arose. The following was passed unanimously:

"Resolved, That we tender our sisterly sympathies to the wife of Rev. George Chaddock, and express our conviction that the death of this heroic son of the Church should incite all loyal citizens to renewed efforts for the overthrow of that iniquity, which is the deadliest foe of homes and the greatest barrier to the progress of the Christian Church."

Miss Pugh was made American Treasurer of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union adjourned sine die with the close of the afternoon session, all unfinished business being referred to the Executive Committee.

Pacing at Bay District Track.

CUTTING BOBS UP.

THIS TIME HE APPEARS AS A BOLD FILIBUSTER.

He Proposes to Raise a Force of Ten Thousand Men

To Invade Mexico, and Set Up a Little Republic of His Own.

He Will Be Contest with Sonora, Chihuahua and Durango—What Is Said at El Paso of his Wild Scheme for a Raid Over the Border.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] The Examiner's El Paso, Texas, special says: A. K. Cutting, the man of international fame, who came so near involving the two Republics in a bloody war, returned a few weeks since from New Mexico. It is said that, since his return to this city, he has been engaged in concocting a scheme to organize an army of 10,000 men to invade Mexico for the purpose of conquering the three States of Chihuahua, Sonora and Durango, and erecting a Republic. It is claimed that El Paso is the headquarters of a secret executive committee, which is sending out a printed circular furthering this filibuster scheme, and giving all the details of its proposed execution. The filibusters expect to have the assistance of the masses of the Mexican people, and particularly of the Catholic Church. An evening paper says that the details of the scheme have been fully known to it for several weeks, and vouches for the correctness of the story to the extent of saying that it is partly true and partly false. The people of this city who know Cutting, ridicule the proposed invasion of Mexico as altogether chimerical, as he has neither the ability nor the influence to engineer a scheme of this sort.

JOHN SHERMAN.

The Ohio Senator's Speech at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] Senator John Sherman addressed a large audience at the Academy of Music to-night under the auspices of the Young Republican Club. He said: "There are at this moment two great controlling facts in American politics. One is the imminent danger that now threatens the overthrow of the economic and industrial policy built up by the Republican party, which, it has been shown, has doubled the wealth of our country within twenty years and trebled its production; and the second is the complete success of what is known as the Mississippi plan, by which more than 1,000,000 of loyal voters of this country have been deprived of all rights conferred upon them by the Constitution and laws, especially the right to vote."

After referring to the necessity, on account of the war, which led Congress to tax everything, Sherman said: "But after the war this system of internal taxes gradually disappeared. One by one they were repealed by the Republican party, so that under the policy of that party to-day there is no tax levied by the United States of America on any article made in this country or on any property existing in this country, or on any man living in the country, for there is no internal tax except upon whisky, tobacco and beer, and whenever there is a public demand and a public necessity for reducing those taxes, I am willing to join my Democratic friends in relieving them."

After devoting some time to a discussion of the merits of the protective policy, Sherman concluded as follows: "So wonderful has been the effect of the application of these simple rules, that out of $650,000,000 of imported goods, probably but three or four hundred millions are on articles that could be produced in this country for which we have the raw material, and on each of those articles there is a protective tariff levied varying from 65 to 70 per cent. Most of them are articles which we are not yet prepared to make, but the time is not far distant when we will manufacture, under the protection of a judicious tariff, any article necessary to human life."

A Young Desperado Sentenced.

BAKER CITY, Oct. 27.—Fred Winkleman to-day pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. He is under 20 years old. Two years ago he stole four head of horses to get even on a man who would not pay him his wages as a cattle herder. He started for Idaho with the horses. Two old residents of this county searching for lost cattle came upon him while he was asleep. The boy, being roused up suddenly, thought the officers were in pursuit of him and seized his Henry rifle and shot both men dead. While incarcerated here he set fire to the jail and was nearly burned to death. His wounds at this time are horrible. It is not likely he will live a year in the State prison.

Three Children Abducted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The facts of the abduction of three children were made public to-day. From Michael Dealy and William Piggott, the fathers of the abducted children, it was learned that on Saturday last a candy dealer, known as "Doc" Burnett, enticed Tillie Dealy, aged 15, Annie Piggott, aged 14, and Hugh Piggott, aged 17, away from their homes by promises of treating them to candy. Since then nothing has been seen of the children, but postal cards have been received by Dealy and Piggott, one of which stated that Burnett had gone to San Luis Obispo, while another stated that he has gone to San Diego. The last postal card was dated from Newhall. The object of the abduction is not known.

Natural Gas at Stockton.

STOCKTON, Cal. Oct. 27.—The company which is boring for natural gas in this vicinity, has struck a strong flow at a depth of 1000 feet in their well on the north bank of Mormon slough. The gas is readily ignited by a match, and besides gas the well yields 300 or 400 gallons of water a minute.

A Right of Way Secured.

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 27.—Col. Lamott, in the interest of the Southern Pacific Railroad, has secured a right of way from Ventura to this place. It is expected that the road will be finished to this point by next July.

THE MESSENGER'S STORY.

Further Details of the Missouri Train Robbery.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] The messenger of the Adams Express Company, whose car was robbed yesterday, was seen at the company's office this morning by a reporter, to whom he told the story of the robbery. He made his statement in a frank, straightforward manner, without the slightest hint of embarrassment or confusion. He said that he was well aware that circumstantial evidence pointed strongly to his being an accessory to the robbery, but that he had nothing to conceal, and was confident that the result of an investigation would clear him of all suspicion. One point in the messenger's statement which was not given out yesterday, is that the robber told Frothingham that he had an accomplice on the train, who, if he (the robber) was unable to carry out his plans unaided, would come to his assistance.

Frothingham in relating in detail his experience with the robber, to-day said: "Before he left he said to me, 'you would be surprised if I told who I am.'

"I said, 'I don't know as I would.'

"'Well,' he said, 'I am Jim Cummings, the last of the Jesse James gang. I was in that Blue Cut job, and only got $1500 out of it. Since then I have passed considerable time in Australia and San Francisco.'

"He seemed familiar with the names and doings of the various members of the James gang. When we began talking he removed the gag from my mouth, but when the train reached a point near Pacific he replaced it, so that I could make no outcry, in the meantime threatening to blow my brains out if I attempted to call any one's attention."

Frothingham's statements thus far have been remarkably clear and straightforward and free from contradiction. The opinion is gaining strength that the robbery was a bona fide affair, and that the messenger was in no way accessory to it.

THE BARTHOLDI STATUE.

An Imposing Pageant to be Held in Its Honor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—To-morrow will practically be a holiday in this city. It is estimated that fully 300,000 men will join in the parade attendant upon the Bartholdi statue of Liberty ceremonies, and that it will extend seven miles. President Cleveland had intended to leave for Washington immediately after the dedication ceremonies at Bedloe's Island, but it is now stated that he will remain to attend the banquet to-morrow.

President Cleveland and party arrived here from Washington on the 9:18 Congressional limited train. The President has not prepared any speech for to-morrow's ceremonies, but will speak extemporaneously.

The following is the official programme of the exercises to be observed at the unveiling on Bedloe's island: Music during the landing and seating of the assembly; signal given; prayer by Rev. Richard S. S. Storrs, D. D.; presentation by Count Ferdinand de Lesseps, on behalf of the Franco-American Union; address by Hon. William M. Evarts, in behalf of the American Committee; unveiling of the statue; salute; salvos from all the forts in the harbor; music; acceptance of the statue by the President; address by Chauncey M. Depew; music; doxology—Old Hundred—in which the assembly are invited to join; benediction by Right Rev. Henry C. Potter, D. D.; national salute, to be fired simultaneously from all the batteries in the harbor, ashore and afloat; illumination of the statue with fireworks on Bedloe's and Governor's islands and the Battery.

A reception was tendered the members of the French delegation to-night by the Union League Club. The theater of the club, where the reception was held, was beautifully decorated with French and American bunting, as was the interior of the entire building. In the banquet hall were all manner of floral designs representing forts Washington and Lafayette and the French and American men-of-war. La France roses were strewn about profusely. Among the guests were M. Bartholdi, Count De Lesseps, Admiral Joures, the other members of the French delegation, Hon. William M. Evarts, Chauncey M. Depew, Lieutenant-Governor Jones, Rear-Admiral Rhines, General Sheridan, Colonel M. V. Sheridan, Major Joseph Walder, of England, Judge Van Halzen, Vanderlicken, German Consul, Major-General Schofield, Russell Sage, and other prominent citizens and public men. Letters of regret were received from President Cleveland, Chester A. Arthur, General W. T. Sherman, Roscoe Conkling, Secretary Daniel Manning and others.

A Swindling Spaniard.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 27.—A Spaniard has been operating in this city for some time past who offers for sale, as silver, pieces of metal which look something like silver, roughly cast in a mold about as large as one's finger, but which in reality are tin or composition. He represents that he has just come from the quicksilver mines, and pretends that he cannot speak English. He has succeeded in swindling a number of people.

For Raiding Chinese.

PETALUMA, Oct. 27.—F. J. Johnson, John Johnson, Charles Eastman, Arthur Carter and J. T. Curry were brought in from Bloomfield by Deputy United States Marshal Burns to-day, charged with being unlawfully engaged in raids against Chinese some time ago. They will have a hearing before Deputy United States Commissioner W. B. Haskell to-morrow.

San Diego Railway Rumors.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 27.—President Strong and Vice-President Smith, of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, paid a flying visit here to-day. It is reported, on good authority, that the object of the visit is to build a road from Los Angels to Oceanside to connect with the California Southern. It is proposed to build a large depot at San Diego.

Several Whites Massacred—The Settlers Fleeing from the Scene of the Trouble—Fears for the Safety of Unprotected Agencies—Troops Sent to Prevent More Bloodshed.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] A special to the Chronicle from Miles City, Montana, says: A few days ago the Cheyenne Chief Crazyhead and two braves were arrested on their reservation on Tongue river, 100 miles from here, by the civil officers, charged with killing sheep of local raisers. The Indians were brought to this city and jailed. The Cheyennes have been troublesome to cattle owners for some years, and have altogether developed a spirit of plunder and lawlessness. To-day word was received at the Government post that the Cheyennes had made a break and would be revenged upon the whites for the indignity put upon their chief by arresting him. It is authentically reported that six men were killed on the Upper river, and the women and children of settlers are flying for safety.

Three companies of United States troops have been ordered to the scene of the outbreak and are already moving out. By forced marches they can reach there in a day. The agent is Capt. Upshaw. The agency is not connected by telegraph, and is totally unprotected. Several hundred Cheyennes are at the agency. Rations are drawn by over 450.

THE TICKET AGENTS.

Another Important Meeting — No Agreement Yet Reached.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] The railroad passenger agents met again this afternoon to consider the proposed basis of an agreement. In addition to those heretofore present was H. B. Smith, representing the Texas & Pacific. On the reading of the agreement, objection was made to the clause concerning a union office and a substitute was offered which was lost. The discussion led to the agreement being again read, and again there was an objection made to the same clause, this time by Mr. White, of Atchison. He went over the old point concerning the rights of the Atlantic and Pacific to be considered a through line. He dwelt on the large business done by the system he represented and said they could not possibly consent to such a relinquishment of their rights as was presented by the establishment of a union ticket office.

Mr. Ford thought the objections by Mr. White not of sufficient weight to interfere with a successful conclusion of what was to all the roads a most important matter. Railroad business in San Francisco cost far more than in any other city in the Union, when it ought to be one of their most profitable sources of revenue. He proposed that the agreement again be read, and on objection being made to any clause, that it be discussed, if such action did not nullify the preceding part of the agreement.

When the third clause was reached Mr. White objected, saying that the Atchison could not be a party to any agreement in which the Canadian Pacific, Northern Pacific, Oregon Railway and Navigation and Pacific Mail companies were not included. A motion was made to include the Canadian Pacific and the Pacific Mail. On this proposition no decisive vote was reached. At the request of Mr. White a committee was appointed to formulate another agreement to be placed before the meeting at 2 o'clock to-morrow. The meeting then adjourned until to-morrow.

In accordance with the proposition made by Mr. Davies, the representatives of the lines east of the Missouri met and talked the matter over, and in the event of a failure of the transcontinental lines to come to an agreement, they will probably form an association of their own, thus securing immunities for the consequences of a railroad war. After appointing a committee to draw up an agreement, in case no satisfactory proposal was made by the transcontinental lines, an adjournment was taken.

The agents of the transcontinental lines met again this evening in executive session. The prospects for an agreement have considerably improved, but it is learned that the Atchison will not consent to a union office.

Filibusters Shot.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 27.—Advices from Puerto Cortez, Honduras, state that on the 10th instant General E. Delgado, Lieutenant-Colonel Ruda Indalicio Garcia, Commander Miguel Cortez and Lieutenant Gabriel Loyono were taken from prison at Comayagua and shot, in accordance with the sentence pronounced by the court-martial. Gen. Delgado and his unfortunate comrades were leaders in the recent filibustering expedition in the interest of ex-President Soto. Contrary to their expectations the people failed to rise upon their landing, being satisfied with the present government, and the entire party were captured by a company of rural guards under the command of the Alcalde.

[Canadian Pacific's Competition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The Bulletin's New York special says: Vice-President Crocker of the Southern Pacific says that negotiations for the resumption of the transcontinental agreement are delayed, because the Pacific Mail wants a larger bonus than the railroads are willing to give, but if that matter were settled there would still be the obstacle caused by the Canadian Pacific's completion to the Pacific Coast, and its establishment of agencies at San Francisco to compete for transcontinental business, of which it is taking a good deal at cut rates, by way of Vancouver's island and Winnipeg to St. Paul and Chicago. "No transcontinental pool can now be formed," Crocker says, "or agreement made with the Pacific Mail without recognizing the Canadian Pacific as a transcontinental line."

Death of a Millionaire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Alfred Smith, a Newport millionaire real estate owner, died yesterday. He leaves $9,000,000.

FOREIGN BUDGET.

Affairs in the Balkans Becoming More Chaotic—Notes.

SOFIA, (Bulgaria,) Oct. 27.—[By Cable.] Gen. Kaulbars has notified the Regency that if the conspirators against Prince Alexander be punished the Russian government will have recourse to extreme measures. The Regents suspecting that it is Kaulbars' intention during their absence at Tirnova to assist the Zankoff party in Sofia to form a new ministry, have taken the precaution to cause the arrest of all suspected persons, and have ordered troops to be in readiness to suppress a revolt. A state of siege will be proclaimed in the event of a coup d'etat being attempted. Another Russian war ship is going to Varna.

A protocol has been signed, renewing diplomatic relations between Servia and Bulgaria. It provides for a treaty of commerce and for a reference of several disputes to a joint commission.

KARAVELOFF'S FEARS.

Karaveloff refuses to go to Tirnova because of fear of being assaulted. He argues that it is unnecessary to convoke the Sobranje in the face of Russian opposition. The Sobranje, he says, has no right to depose him from the regency, and declares that if it does, he will retire under protest.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A state of siege has been proclaimed at Sofia.

THE WAY RUSSIAN CRUISERS WERE SENT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 27.—The Official Messenger says: "The anarchy which prevails in Bulgaria, prevents the Russian consuls from protecting the lawful interests of Russian residents. After Gen. Kahlbars had left Varna, several Russians were arrested on illegal pretexts. Two Russian cruisers were therefore dispatched to that place."

A REBELLION IN INDIA.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Advices from Rangoon say that the rebellion in Myingyan is increasing. The mail for Yemthen has been looted and the native escort killed. The British have organized forces to attack the rebels in the Momboo and Myingyan districts next week.

QUICKLY ENDED.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Pundas invading Xealbland have been dispersed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] Labouchere, in his cable letter to the World, says: "The wheat harvest in Russia is a complete failure this year, which should be good news for the growers of America."

BLAINE SPEAKS.

The Maine Statesman on the Prohibition Party.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] Blaine left here this morning for his trip through the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania. The tour will take up two days, and Blaine will make sixteen speeches.

WILLIAMSPORT, Oct. 27.—Blaine was received here by a large crowd, to which he made an address on the tariff question. The same programme was carried out at Lewisburg, with some remarks on prohibition, as follows:

"The political contest in Pennsylvania this year bears a very striking analogy to that which we closed in Maine in September. We had the Republican party in the field; we had the Democratic party in the field, and we had a third party in the field professing special devotion to prohibition. Maine has been a prohibition State for thirty years, and the third party of Prohibitionists in this country seem to think they had a particular patent right upon all temperance topics and they came to Maine to persuade us of that prohibition State that the Republican party had better be dispossessed of power and the question of temperance handed over to the tender mercies and kind care of the Democratic party. I find the same condition of things in this State with the exception that Pennsylvania has never pronounced in favor of prohibition, but we find the third party organized for this purpose and with the declared intention of defeating the Republican party and of bringing the Democratic party into power. Now whatever you may think, whatever I may think, or whatever any one else may think, as to the expediency or inexpediency of prohibition, we will agree that the one party in the United States which has never done anything for the cause of temperance is the Democratic party [applause], and here in Pennsylvania as before in Maine, that third party organized especially to promote temperance works obviously to the end of throwing it all over into the control of the national inherited and perpetual enemies of temperance. The laboring men of this State and of the Northern States are about entering on another question of great and imperious magnitude. That is with the power of the national government in the hands of the Democratic party there is no possible hope for the progress of nearly two millions of colored laborers in the South. They give them no vote, they give them no influence. They keep them living in huts on starvation wages, and they are hurrying them by millions into competition with Northern men. Now, if the Democratic party holds the government of this country, and keeps that labor servile as it was when the chains of slavery were fastened upon it, its competition with the white labor of this country will grow more and more fierce, and more and more they have to confront this direct and important truth that, either that a great mass of laborers in the South must be raised in the scale of intelligence and compensation, or they will pull the Northern men to their level on wages. Gentlemen, this is no catch-word of the campaign; it is no mere resource of political necessity; it is not the cry of a party defeated, or of a party that expects to be victorious; it is the solemn, undeniable, industrial fact. Pray, reflect upon it."

At Shamokin, a larger crowd that at most of the former stopping places welcomed Mr. Blaine. He spoke from the balcony of the hotel to over five thousand people.

A Sea Captain's Suicide.

ASTORIA, Oct. 27.—Captain A. M. Drummond, of the British bark Don, in a fit of temporary insanity jumped overboard from the Portland steamer this afternoon, on the passage down to Astoria, and sank before the steamer's small boat could reach him. He was a young man of twenty-eight. It was his first voyage as master, and he had trouble with his crew, they suing in Portland for discharge and pay, charging him with gross intemperance and cruelty. He denied the charge, but the case was decided against him, and this trouble is supposed to have unbalanced his mind.

The Locomotive Engineers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Locomotive Engineers' Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today re-elected P. M. Arthur as Grand Chief Engineer for three years.

SAN FRANCISCO.

MICAH DOANE AGAIN ON TRIAL FOR JURY-BRIBING.

How the Transcontinental Ticket Agents Regard the Proposed Union Office—An Important Legal Decision—President Sprague of Mills Seminary Asked to Resign.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] A jury was impaneled to-day in the case of Micah Doane, one of the "jury-bribers," and the trial commenced. This is the second trial of Doane, the jury having disagreed in the first, standing eight for acquittal to four for conviction. District-Attorney Wilson, in opening the case for the prosecution, made the following remarks:

"We are about to enter upon the trial of, perhaps, one of the most important cases that ever occurred in this city and county. If there is anything that ought to be kept pure, it is a court of justice. If there is anything that appeals to the manhood of our citizens, it is the purity of not only the judges who sit upon the bench, but of all officers of the court, and, most of all, of the juries who try our cases. Unless we have purity in courts of justice, man need not expect safety either of person, of property or of life. But I want to impress upon your minds in the beginning of this case how absolutely necessary it is to have a full, fair and impartial investigation of each and every case wherein a man is charged with tampering with the fountain of justice. If it be charged in this case that the defendant at the bar did so in a case that certainly appeals, if any case could appeal, to our manhood. A widow and her children were suing a large, wealthy and influential corporation for damages sustained by the death of the husband and father. If the attack upon the integrity of any juror is a matter of importance to the citizens of the community or State it certainly appeals to our hearts and manhood much more when the parties interested are a widow and her children. Now it is charged that this defendant in this case, who has been a man of standing in this community for many years, willfully, maliciously and feloniously attempted to coerce or affect the judgment in the case in a manner tending to take the bread and butter out of the mouths of that widow and her children. I say that if there is any case which appeals directly to our manhood, if there is any case that arouses indignation, it is a case of this character, where not only the purity of the courts is attacked but where the attack is directed against such helpless individuals."

THE TALK OF THE TICKET AGENTS.

Since the war of transcontinental rates last spring nothing has occurred to interest passenger agents as much as the meeting which opened yesterday at the Palace hotel. The Pacific coast agents of the various lines were found to-day to construe the significance of a union ticket office in different ways. One version was that such an office would contain representatives of each of the transcontinental lines, who would keep a continual surveillance over the acts of each other, and that this would prevent any rate cutting; also, that no offices would be closed except the present transcontinental offices, the change not affecting the agents of the Iowa and trunk lines. Another idea was that the union office means that all the offices shall remain open but that tickets shall be sold only at the union offices, this to be under the control of an impartial arbitrator of the committee who shall recommend no route but who shall see that the schedule rates to eastern points are maintained. Still another view was that with the union office, all other offices would be closed. Among suggestions thrown out while the actions and probabilities concerning the pending conference are under discussion is a covert threat of war in Southern California, next month, when the eastern business begins to move more briskly provided that no agreement shall be reached.

AN IMPORTANT CASE DECIDED.

Judge Maguire this morning rendered a decision in the celebrated case of Witcher Jones vs. Joseph Brendenstein et al., dealers in and manufacturers of tobacco, with whom the plaintiff was a partner. The Court previously held that the plaintiff was entitled to a dissolution of the copartnership. Upon the conclusions of the Court the plaintiff was entitled to a full accounting of all issues and profits of such copartnership. But plaintiff has claimed that the ordinary rules of accounting shall not apply to this case, because of alleged fraudulent conduct on the part of the defendants by which great losses were experienced by the firm, in whose business he claims one-third interest. These losses, he claimed, should be borne by those guilty of the frauds. He claims that the defendants should be compelled to account for the gross receipts of all branches of the business, without allowance for advances, operating or or other expenses, and that a full third should be set apart to him as his share of the profits. The Court held that Jones was entitled to one-third of the stock and one-third of the dividends upon such stock, upon payment of his share of all advances made by the other members of the firm, and upon payment of his share of all debts of the copartnership; that there was no intention, as far as can be ascertained, from the evidence to cheat or defraud or in any manner to embarrass the Seal Rock Tobacco Company or the corporation or any member thereof. The decision concluded as follows: "The order of the court is therefore that a full and true accounting of the property, business and affairs of the copartnership be had; that such accounting include all of the business and affairs of the Seal Rock Tobacco Company and all business transactions had between the firm of Esberg, Bachman & Co. and the J. B. Pace Tobacco Company, and that such accounting be taken in accordance with the views expressed in this opinion."

THE MISSING STEAMER SARDONYX.

Considerable anxiety is felt here about the steamer Sardonyx which was reported in distress last week off Cape Perpetua, Oregon. Last Sunday the Yaquina saw her near Umpqua but did not stop as no signals of distress were shown. The State of California, which arrived in port to-day, passed by Umpqua two days ago. The Sardonyx was not seen on account of heavy fog. She was in very bad condition at latest reports and fears are entertained that she has sunk.

PRESIDENT SPRAGUE ASKED TO RESIGN.

The Board of Trustees of Mills College, Oakland, have requested Homer B. Sprague, President of that institution, to resign. The cause of this action on the part of the Trustees is that they are dissatisfied with the changes he has recommended, claiming that they are too radical. President Sprague declines to accede to the request, and further action will be taken by the board at its meeting Friday.

A QUESTION OF DUTIES.

New Agreement Between the United States and Spain.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] Ever since the issue of President Cleveland's proclamation restoring discriminating duties on imports under the Spanish flag, negotiations have been in progress between the governments of Spain and the United States, looking to an adjustment of the points in dispute. Although no formal arrangement has yet been made, it is learned that the Spanish government is ready to accept temporarily the interpretation placed upon the treaty by the United States and put into the third column of duties, as set out in the treaty, all imports into the Spanish West Indies under the American flag.

On the other hand, the proclamation reimposing discriminating duties on imports under the Spanish flag will be withdrawn by the President. Although this arrangement will be temporary in character, with the ostensible object of affording an opportunity for the negotiation of a supplemental treaty which shall fully define and construe the points that have led to the controversy, yet it is believed that an agreement can be reached by the two governments that will obviate the necessity for the ratification of a new treaty.

The following is the agreement referred to in the President's proclamation.

PROCLAMATION.

Memorandum of agreement between the government of the United States of America and the government of Spain for the reciprocal and complete suspension of all discrimination duties of tonnage or imports in the United States and in the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico upon vessels of the respective countries and their cargoes.

First—It is positively understood that from this date an absolute equalization of tonnage and import duties shall at once be applied to the products of and articles proceeding from the United States or from any foreign country in vessels owned by citizens of the United States to the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico, and that no higher or other import or tonnage duties will be levied upon such vessels and merchandise carried in them as aforesaid, than are imposed upon the same circumstances. Under the above conditions the President of the United States will at once issue his proclamation declaring that foreign discriminating duties of tonnage and imports within the United States are suspended and discontinued so far as respects Spanish vessels and produce, manufactures or merchandise imported in them into the United States from Spain, or her possessions aforesaid, or from a foreign country. This memorandum of agreement is offered by the Government of Spain and accepted by the Government of the United States as a full and satisfactory notification of the facts above recited.

Second—The United States Minister at Madrid will be authorized to negotiate with the Minister for Foreign Affairs either by an agreement or by a treaty, so as to place the commercial relations between the United States and Spain on a permanent footing advantageous to both countries.

In witness whereof the undersigned, in behalf of the Governments of the United States and of Spain, respectively have hereunto set their hands and seals.

Done at Washington this twenty-seventh day of October, A. D. 1886.

[Signed] T. F. BAYARD, [SEAL]
E. DE MUCUACA. [SEAL]

The President issued the following proclamations this afternoon:

By the President of the United States of America—

A PROCLAMATION:

WHEREAS, Satisfactory proof has been given to me by the Government of Spain that no discriminating duties on tonnage on imports are imposed or levied in the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico upon vessels wholly belonging to citizens of the United States, or upon produce, manufactures or merchandise imported in the same from the United States, or from any foreign country and

WHEREAS, A notification of such abolition of discriminating duties of tonnage and imports, as aforesaid, has been given to me by the memorandum of agreement signed this day in the city of Washington, between the Secretary of State of the United States, and the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Majesty, the Queen Regent of Spain, accredited to the Government of the United States of America,

Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 4228 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, do hereby declare and proclaim that from and after the date of this my proclamation, being also the date of the notification received as aforesaid, foreign discriminating duties imports on within the United States are suspended and discontinued, so far as respects vessels of Spain and the produce, manufactures or merchandise imported in said vessels into the United States from the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico, or from any other foreign country, such suspension to continue so long as a reciprocal exemption of vessels belonging to citizens of the United States, and their cargoes, shall be continued in said islands, and no longer.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fourth.

[Signed] GROVER CLEVELAND, President.

T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

The Fine Gift of the Cleveland Millionaire in Ashes—Loss Estimated at $200,000—A Virginia Town Visited by a Severe Conflagration—Sixteen Houses Burned.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.]

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 27.—[By the Western Associated Press.] The magnificent stone building of the Case School of Applied Sciences, at the East End, completed and opened one year ago, was burned at an early hour this morning. The building was four stories in height and built of sandstone. It was furnished with all the latest appliances for the demonstration of science. The total loss is estimated at $200,000. The physiological and geological collections and chemical apparatus were among the finest in the country. The chemical appliances were valued at $50,000. It is thought that the building and contents were insured for $75,000. There were from fifty to sixty students. The Case school was built with money left by the late Leonard Case, a Cleveland millionaire and philanthropist.

PLATFORM OF THE AMERICAN PARTY, Adopted at the State Convention held at Fresno, September 22, 1886.

1. We reiterate and endorse the doctrines promulgated by the Executive Committee of the American Party.

2. Believing that Americans should rule America, we favor the education of American youths, boys and girls, as artisans and mechanics, to fill the places of foreigners who now have nearly the exclusive control of all the great industries of our country, save agriculture alone.

3. Russian in politics is the outgrowth of foreign influence. We condemn it, and declare that the American Party has not and shall not have it.

4. The waters of the State belong to the lands they will irrigate; and we favor a broad and comprehensive system of irrigation to the exclusion of the so-called rights of riparian and appropriation. A system controlled by the Government, free to all; under the control of no class of persons, and established and maintained by a revenue derived from those only who profit by the irrigation.

5. We believe in equal taxation, and to accomplish that desirable reform, we favor the reduction of taxes on the real estate of the cultivator of the soil, and the laying of additional burdens on the luxuries.

6. We would foster and encourage American industries, and that end would protect home production and manufactures, and inaugurate and maintain a system that would not only exclude the cheap labor productions of other countries, but would also exclude the cheap laborers of all other countries, and prevent them from coming here to compete with Americans.

7. We believe that American free schools are indispensible supports to liberty; that reason and experience both teach us that national existence depends upon the influence of liberal and refined education.

HONEST, SOUND ADVICE.

TO PERSONS SEEKING HOMES IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA,

.....GO TO.....

The Great San Jacinto Valley

IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

AREA, 15 MILES SQUARE.

Eighty-five miles east of Los Angeles, twelve miles south of Beaumont (formerly San Gorgonio), on the S. P. R. R., sixteen miles east of Perris, on the C. S. R. R., and daily stages to and from these points; climate genial and dry—being fifty miles from the coast. Throat, lung, asthama and catarrh troubles are benefitted, and many chronic cases are permanently cured. Productive land ranging in price from $15 to $100 per acre, for fruit, agriculture, grazing, etc. Alfalfa cut five to seven times a year there. The orange, lemon, fig, apricot, peach, grapes and other kinds of fruit grown in Southern California are produced here.

2000 ACRES OF HEAVY TIMBER FOR FUEL,

Which is sold from $1 to $3 a cord. An abundant supply of pine, cedar, spruce, oak, etc., on the adjacent mountains. Two saw-mills (capacity 20,000 feet daily); 1 planing-mill; 1 fruit box factory; 2 brick yards (2,500,000 burnt and laid up here in two years), price per thousand last season, $8 and $7. First-class lime stone in unlimited quantity.

EIGHTY-TWO ARTESIAN WELLS,

One of which flows 1,000,000 gallons ever twenty-four hours. River water is being conveyed in iron pipes to a 3000-acre tract of mesa land, suitable for most all semi-tropical fruits.

TWO HOT SPRINGS,

The curative properties of which are famous, and the baths are free to everybody.

A PROPOSITION FOR BUILDING A RAILROAD

Is now before the people. Railroad surveys are on foot. Artesian water is conducted through the streets in iron pipes, and into second stories of buildings.

A $12,000 BRICK SCHOOL HOUSE,

Graded schools, churches, brick blocks. This place has made, as we believe, the greatest growth of any place in Southern California, and has made the most improvements of any new colony in California in the last three years. Its altitude is 1400 feet above the sea. The population in 1883 was fifty persons, and in 1886 is about twelve hundred. No other valley in Southern California has so many advantages. Come and see for yourself and be convinced of this fact.

☞ We, the undersigned citizens, agree and guarantee to pay the expenses of any person or persons from any point in California to San Jacinto and return, if everything in the above statement is not true:

Silk-faced velvets, in all the leading shades, 95c a yard. You can't touch them anywhere under $1.50. Do not be deceived. There is a quality sold in this market at $1 a yard—its poorer than velveteen, and won't give as good wear.

Black and colored silks at 89c a yard. We never had anything to equal them. They are examined only to be purchased.

Two-toned embroidered ladies' cloth suits, $10; containing ten yards of the very best goods, with embroidered material for panels, vest, collars and cuffs.

We desire to call your attention to the line of empress cloth we are selling at 25½ cents a yard. These goods are extremely rich. We guarantee their wear, and they would be cheap at 40 cents. These are splendid bargains.

At 25 cents we have a line of 38-inch goods; plain grounds illumined with silk figures. Goods that you will acknowledge bargains compared to the values heretofore sold at 25 cents.

There are a few cuts more of that 54-inch all-wool cheviots that you can have again to-day at 40 cents. No such goods ever sold anywhere for the money.

Turkish screen for curtains, printed in Oriental patterns, 15 cents a yard. The prettiest and cheapest screen-net yet shown.

Striped flannels of an exceptionally soft and durable texture; suitable for wraps, inside jackets and infants wear; 35 cents a yard; worth at least 50 cents.

Special pieces of Nottingham curtain net will be placed on sale to-day at 25 cents, that are worth and sold regularly at 50 cents.

We offer the best bargains in linens, table and bocsom, napkins, towels and doylies that we have ever shown.

Comforters are selling with us at 75c. to-day that are worth much more at wholesale. If you are posted on current prices, you'll see that we are selling goods at less than wholesale quotations. We call your special attention to a bale of grey blankets that we are going to give away to-day: 10-4 extra heavy at $1.40 a pair. We would consider them a bargain at $2. We have just 60 pair of them for sale.

The dollar and fifty cents is our price to-day for 96 white counterpanes. You'd buy them cheap at $2.50. We only ask an inspection of the items we advertise.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1886.

The "Herald" Off Its Base Again.

The Herald of yesterday morning contains a long and unjustifiable attack on Frank Gibson, County Recorder and Republican candidate for re-election, alleging as its ground that Mr. Gibson is a member of a firm of abstract-makers and does not devote his whole time to the work of the public office. Bless us! That is Frank's strong point. Having been so long familiar with the records, he knows exactly how to run them with the least expense to the county. This was shown in the comparative statement published a few days ago in THE TIMES, wherein it appeared that Los Angeles county, with a little larger volume of fees than San Francisco, pays only about one-third as much for doing the work. If the county can get a few more officers whose business qualifications and associations enable them to do as well, it had better take them, whether they devote all of their time to its service or not. The Herald cannot assert honestly that the affairs of the Recorder's office have not been ably and cheaply conducted under Mr. Gibson's administration.

Trying to Bolster It Up.

It was announced, with a flourish of trumpets, by some of our versatile contemporaries, the other day, that the Sixth District Agricultural Society had settled its bills, paid $1950 in premiums and was still $1700 ahead. In the fair business seven years, with an annual subsidy from the State of over $1000, and now only $1700 ahead! Why, the directors have been "cinched" for more than that sum in shortages, during the unsuccessful career of this organization. In commenting on this financial showing the Herald smugly says:

"The President, Secretary and Board of Directors are to be congratulated on their successful management of the society during the past year. They appear to be the right men in the right place."

What encouragement or hope of better things is there, when a dishonest press thus beslavers with praise an organization which has been a stumbling block in the way of industrial progress for years!

About fourteen years ago, when Kansas City was, the size of Los Angeles now, an exposition was organized there on modern, progressive principles. It drew an attendance of forty thousand people on some of its best days, and the receipts for the week were nearly $100,000. With the same enterprise and good management, Los Angeles could do as well now. O Tempora! O Mores! Why don't you give us an agricultural society that can fill the bill?

One of Mr. Swift's Speeches.

The Republican nominee for Governor made a strong and notable speech at Salinas, on the night of the 25th inst., to "the largest assemblage that ever congregated here [there] at a political meeting," says the dispatch in the San Francisco Bulletin, from which we quote portions of Mr. Swift's remarks.

Speaking of the episode of his nomination as the "American" candidate, not of the Fresno convention, but of the Argonaut, Mr. Swift gave succinct history of that affair, and of his declination of the proffered honor, and then said:

"For my refusal Mr. Pixley has accused me of bidding for the Irish Democratic vote. This I most respectfully deny. I was simply doing my duty by the ticket of which I was the head, in endeavoring to deserve and retain the votes of 20,000 foreign-born citizens and native-born Catholics and Hebrews who vote the Republican ticket loyally at every election.

"But I would have had no right to expect that vote had I done otherwise than I did. Through that vote the Republican party has again and again carried this State at periods of our country's history when for the Republican party not to carry this and other States would have been a disaster to the nation and jeopardized its existence."

Mr. Swift made speeches for Abraham Lincoln, and this is what he said about them at Salinas:

"For my part, I am willing to abide by the Republican vote. I am proud to remember that I canvassed this State from one end to the other, making fifty-three speeches for Abraham Lincoln, at a time when Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Wigginton were sympathizing with the enemies of that great patriot, endeavoring to malign his character and to defeat him for President of the United States. I did the same thing twice for U. S. Grant, speaking throughout the State on each occasion, at a time when both Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Wigginton were denouncing that great hero with charges of corruption, nepotism and gift-taking. I feel that I ought to be considered as good an American as either of them. I would like the votes of the native-born Republicans of this State, but if, in order to get them, I must take the ground that foreign-born Republicans, Catholic Republicans and Hebrew Republicans, after having voted for me, will be denied and ought to be denied every sort of recognition at my hands in the distribution of patronage, and in all other rights of citizenship except that of merely voting for me, I fear that I must lose them, for I cannot subscribe to such a doctrine so long as I stand at the head of the ticket of the Republican party that repudiates such principles."

Of Mr. Pixley's platform he said:

"The platform upon which Mr. Pixley did me the honor to nominate me, and which set out with the statements of the purpose of himself and his twelve friends in nominating me, declared that the object to be choose from the Democratic and Republican tickets such candidates as shall represent the idea of Americans of native birth being first entitled to enjoy the offices of the country, provided they are competent and honest. How could I ask the twenty thousand foreign-born citizens, loyal members of the Republican party, to vote for me on a platform that would exclude them from all possibility of recognition, or holding office under the Government? And if because I could not do so in justice to the party and ticket, can it be that Republicans of native birth will go over to Mr. Wigginton, a Democrat, who has been twice elected to Congress by foreign votes, and thus aid in the election of Mr. Bartlett, a Democrat, who has certainly gone as far to conciliate and secure the foreign vote as any man in any party? Such is the same platform. Mr. Pixley declared that 'no man is placed on his ticket who attends the Catholic Church when in good taste he can avoid it.' On that platform, had I accepted the Argonaut nomination (and remember, no other has ever been offered me), how could I expect any Catholic Republican of any nationality—German, Swiss, Italian, Spanish, French or Irish—to vote for me? Has the Republican party ever taken such ground? And if it has not, what right has any candidate, consenting to accept such a nomination, to the vote of any Catholic Republicans, of which there are several thousand in the party?"

The whole speech, of which the above are only brief extracts, was an exceedingly telling and timely one, and THE TIMES regrets that lack of space prevents its reproduction in these columns in its entirety. It will be worth thousands of votes to its author, whose candor, clearness and honesty are unquestioned.

"Hold the Congressional Fort."

This is the sound and timely advice of a correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin, who appreciates the political situation and understands the duty of the hour very clearly. He says: "The duty of the Republicans on this day week is perfectly clear. It is to stand by the flag in that part of the field where Republicanism is alone in danger. There never was a time when party fidelity was more necessary. The only part that is really assailed is the National Legislature. If Republicans ever hope to resume control of the country, they must hold the fort now; they must not lose a man either in the House of Representatives or in the Senate."

Continuing, the correspondent says:

"They are told that men have been nominated on the legislative ticket who are unfit. This is possible. A system under which one-half of the voting population voluntarily disfranchises itself by abstaining from the primaries affords opportunities for wire-pulling. But all said and done, the Republican legislative ticket is as good, on the whole, as the Democratic legislative ticket. There is no earthly reason why any Republican should bolt the former for the latter; nor, on a dispassionate comparison of the two, do reasons appear why a doubtful voter should prefer the Democratic candidates to the Republican candidates. The names and antecedents of the latter promise at least equally faithful public work."

On the subject of Sargent and his Senatorial aspirations, the correspondent says:

"An effort is being made in certain quarters to create the impression that Republican success will necessarily mean the return of Sargent to the Senate. It will mean nothing of the kind. Mr. Sargent is a candidate for the Senate. He possesses ability and experience. He has devoted friends. But he is not the only candidate, nor the only one who has ability and friends. There is a large body of young Republicans who believe that it is time for the generation to which he belongs to step to the rear, and to make way for new leaders. Whether these young Republicans will outnumber the Sargent men in caucus, no one can tell. But if Republicans now allow themselves to be flustered by the insidious efforts of the Democratic leaders to confuse their minds, it will not matter much whether the old Republicans or the young Republicans are in a majority; the choice of a Senator will not concern either of them."

This is the sensible view of the matter. It is probable that Mr. Sargent is not the choice of the Republicans of California for United States Senator, but there need be no apprehension, we think, about giving him a chance, along with other aspirants, to compete for the honor. The duty of the hour for the Republicans is to vote for the legislative nominees of the party throughout the State.

The candidates in Los Angeles county are Henry T. Hazard and Col. E. E. Edwards for the Senate, and Messrs. Knox, Brierly and Melrose for the Assembly. Vote for them!

IT IS said that a paper has been going the rounds of the police force, whereby it is sought to exonerate Chief Davis from complicity with the gamblers. If the Chief feels aggrieved at the charges which have been made against him, he had better demand an investigation by the proper authorities. That is better than a coat of whitewash applied by the force.

THE grand Republican "round up" of the campaign will take place next Saturday evening, when General Vandever and Corporal Tanner speak.

Interest, and [illegible] Los Angeles county bridge bonds at the same rate.

The preceding Democratic administration had refunded $94,000 bonds at six per cent. Secretary of State Thompson offered to take $200,000 at four and a half per cent., but afterwards backed out. The Republicans then refunded the $437,000 bonds, which had borne seven per cent., for four and a half per cent. [illegible] (Applause.) The Republican [illegible] bonds amounting to $25,000, and the Santa Ana bridge bonds for $6,000 cannot be refunded, as they are to be paid on a certain day. The Republicans have saved in this one matter of refunding the sum of $11,000 per year.

Following Mr. Holton's speech, which was heartily applauded, addresses were made by A. A. Montano, George E. Gard, El Hammond, A. M. Thornton, Z. Decker and others.

RUNAWAY.

Two Ladies Severely Injured—A Lucky Baby.

Yesterday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, a one-horse team, driven by a Chinaman, ran away on North Main street and turned down Commercial street. The Chinaman in the wagon was so frightened that he could not pick up the reins. The horse ran down to the foot of Commercial street, where the wagon struck a buggy coming around the corner of Alameda street, in which were two ladies, Mrs. Ogsbury and Mrs. Ford, of East Los Angeles. The buggy was turned over, throwing the two ladies out on the street. Bystanders rushed off the sidewalk and picked up the ladies. Their injuries consisted of severe cuts and bruises on their faces. Dr. Cochrane dressed their wounds. Both teams were captured without further damage and the ladies were taken home. Mrs. Ogsbury had her 18-months old grandchild in her lap at the time of the accident, but the baby escaped unhurt.

The Problem of Cheap Travel.

Rev. A. W. Jackson writes to THE TIMES, strongly commending the Phillips excursions. He says he went East on one and returned on another, and found the first good and the second better. "Of course there is not the luxury attending them to be found in a Pullman car," he says, "yet there is substantial comfort. The cars are commodious and cleanly, sanitary conditions are respected, police regulations are enforced, while every attention is given that a reasonable traveler can ask for. Seems to me the importance of cheap yet comfortable travel is here most admirably solved."

Court Notes.

Judge Cheney yesterday admitted Lucas Sonoqui to citizenship.

Mrs. M. J. Wheeler was yesterday granted a divorce from E. C. Wheeler in Department Two of the Superior Court.

The examination of George Deitrich for the murder of Andrew Schneider was concluded before Justice Austin yesterday. Deitrich was held without bail for trial.

Reception for Prof. Roehrig.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shively gave a reception for Prof. F. L. O. Roehrig at their residence, 849 South Hill street, last evening. The parlors were filled with a large and congenial company. The musical features of the evening were an improvisation by Prof. Roehrig; song,—"Daughter of the Regiment"—by Mrs. W. R. Burke; instrumental,—Beethoven's Sonata in A flat—by Mrs. H. C. Ide, and some charmingly rendered ballads—"The Broken Pitcher," and "If I were You"—by Miss Mollie Adelia Brown.

The Biggest Yet.

Manuel Andrada, of Cahuenga, left at the TIMES office yesterday two watermelons of the mamoth variety; which beat anything previously exhibited. One of the "fruits" weighs 120 pounds, and the other 75. Of the dozen or more melons which Mr. Andrada brought to town, not one weighed less than 70 pounds. The largest melon measures 5½ feet in circumference the long way.

Beware of the Riverbeds.

Buyers, have you read the statement of City Engineer Fred Eaton made to the City Council? We quote from a printed copy of his remarks as follows. He says: "The riverbed has filled, and if another flood comes with the winter rains the river will overflow. Come down Alameda street, thence to Washington, Adams and Jefferson streets, and so on across Chemeya to La Ballona, which the topography of the country shows to have been the 'original' bed of the river." He further states that Agricultural Park is thirty-three feet below the present bed of the river at a point due east. The above printed statement can be found in THE TIMES of October 26th, under the head of "Council." In view of the above the Electric Railroad Homestead Association have been led to ascertain the difference in elevation between their "South Side" Tract on Pico Heights and the above locality, and find by the city levels that it is fifty-one feet higher than West Jefferson street, where it crosses the city and thence downward to the sea.

Something Worth Knowing.

Buyers should make a note of this: The surveyors levels show the "South Side" lots of the Electric Railway Homestead Association to be 51 feet above Jefferson street at city line.

The Howes Tract.

Worth Reading.

A Splendid Piece of Property Placed on the Market.

—THE—

Southern California Land Co.

AGAIN TO THE FORE.

THE HOWES TRACT, on Jefferson street, including the handsome home residence and charming grounds of F. C. Howes, Esq., Cashier of Los Angeles National Bank, to be subdivided—375 large lots (one-fifth of an acre each), with nine beautiful residences, including the large cottage of 10 rooms of Mr. Howes, graded streets, etc., to be sold on the homestead plan at $190 per lot, in payments of $10 monthly, without interest, with first payment of $30.

The great success of the Southern California Land Company (Baker Block) with the Childs Tract, Urmston Tract, City Center Tract, Williamson Tract, Eleventh-street Block and Columbia Colony has been owing to the wonderfully low rates at which this popular company has placed first-class, well-located property before the public.

It is refreshing to note in the midst of the boom in real estate, that one reliable firm not only gives to the people homestead lots at about one-third the prices charged by others, but also performs all its promises to the letter, in the building of houses, opening out of streets, putting up electric lights and extending the improvements of our city to its farthest legitimate bounds.

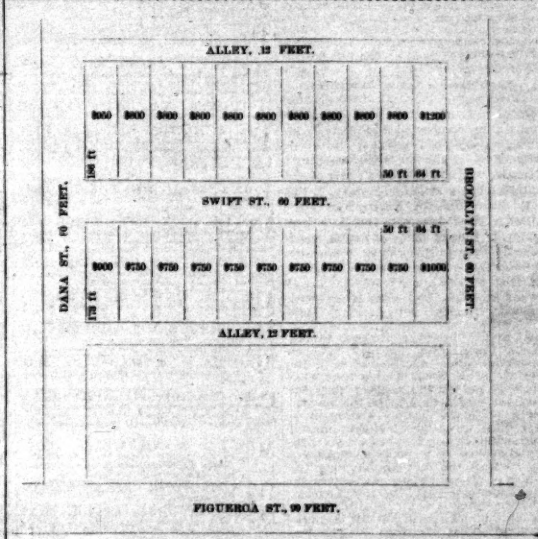
The maps of the Howes Tract will not be ready for some days; but in the meantime all will be bustle and activity on this beautiful property; surveyors will be laying off streets and avenues, builders will be placing houses and pushing forward at once all the improvements promised, and the tract, now almost all covered with vines, orange trees and splendid foliage, will put on a metropolitan look and keep up with its beautiful surroundings of costly buildings and cottage residences.

The Howes Tract fronts on Jefferson street, west of Vermont avenue. The location is a very popular one, in the direct line of the city's rapid growth, and will soon be reached by lines of street railroad and the motor road on the west.

It was not intended to open the books for this fine property until the 5th of November, but the fact that it was to be placed on the market having become known, an instant demand sprang up, and names are coming in so rapidly that the sales may all be made before even the maps, plans, etc., are ready for the public. The large salesroom of the SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA LAND COMPANY, 244 North Main street, Baker block, is filled every evening with subscribers until a late hour.

$190 per lot is not one-third the price of outlying lots in Pasadena or the rocky canyons around it, and not one-fourth the rate of the farthest subdivision of unmarketable tracts in East Los Angeles.

Real Estate.



The Above Fine Residence Lots,

AVERAGING 50x180 FEET, with alley in rear, are now first offered for sale on easy terms at marked prices. They are located in the best improved and most rapidly growing quarter of the city. The prices are lower than what is asked for adjoining property. For sale by

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[This is the TIMES-MIRROR'S Public Forum Those who would stand thereon must first give the editor their real names and be responsible for their opinions and statements. Cultivate brevity, clearness of style and timeliness; write plainly and on five topics, and use one side of the sheet only.]

Card From a Native American.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27, 1886.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] Will you kindly permit me to use your columns in refutation of the assertion made by Homer C. Katz in this morning's Herald, "that C. N. Wilson at a recent meeting of the American party, in this city, stated that the Native Sons of the Golden West were with the American party." I never made any such statement, either in public or elsewhere. I know that very many of the members of that society are friendly to me. I count amongst them some of my most valued friends, both socially and politically.

I would, however, suggest to Mr. Katz, that though he may hold an honorable and important office in the Society of N. S. G. W., his private office is not for life, neither does his position entitle him to be the mouthpiece of 10,000 native Californians. Nor did any one besides himself authorize him to issue a pronunciamento of a political character, or "to impress the fact forcibly upon the minds of all politicians, and especially the American party in Los Angeles, that the order is not a political organization," and I would submit this proposition: That Mr. Katz himself has grossly violated the very article of the constitution of the society of the N. S. G. W. referred to by him in his article. Why does he pitch his beaver into the politician wrena, challenge and defy Frank Pixley, P. D. Wigginton, C. N. Wilson and others for the sin of Wilson alone, if any sin was committed? The fervency of the article in the Herald would, I think, go far to prove that Mr. Katz seeks notoriety, and is ready to sacrifice the constitution of the N. S. G. W. to attain unto it. I regret that any political act of mine should have so stirred the bile of the District Deputy Grand President of the N. S. G. W.

Very truly yours,
C. N. WILSON.

Another Denial.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] In your issue of the 26th inst. there appeared an article, purporting to have been written by one John L. Fonck, a suspended policeman, in which he stated that among the six faro games in nightly operation in this city, one is conducted by ex-Chief of Police Cuddy, in the Rose block. Now, as to the trouble between the suspended member and the Chief of Police, I know nothing and care as little, but as the public is liable to infer that by means my house, known as the Rose block, furnished rooms, you will please grant me the privilege of saying, through your paper, that no game of the kind spoken of, nor any other species of gambling, has ever been conducted in my house since I have had charge of it, nor do I intend there shall be, with my knowledge; and I will further state that it is my firm belief that no faro game is conducted in the rooms underneath, occupied by Flannigan, Cuddy & Co. Respectfully yours.

H. W. SQUIRE,
Proprietor Rose Block.

A Step in the Right Direction.

ANNANDALE, Oct. 22.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] I am glad to be one of many who read a paper which has the grit and honesty to expose a fraud, which we are bound to believe it has. Under the circumstances, one of a sane mind could not believe otherwise; and a journal covering up such a crime is equally guilty with the perpetrator, and any party electing such to places of trust, knowingly, is equally guilty; and I believe a paper covering up such a caricature and deceiving the people is worse than the accused. Such journals, and all who vote for such characters, in so doing say plainly such things are no sin, but right. Some papers say you will lose hundreds of subscribers. I think otherwise. The TIMES-MIRROR should have every honest man's name on its list of subscribers. I think none of it, tenfold, than before. We have too many hoodlums in places of trust and honor. I was an old-time Whig until the Republican party was born, then I was born again, but such things will destroy it—and our government—if carried out. So thanks to the TIMES-MIRROR for a step in the right direction.

S. Z. MILLARD.

Card from Mr. Cuddy.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] In the local column of to-day's TIMES I notice an interview with a discharged policeman, in which it is said that I am the proprietor of a gambling game in the Rose block. I desire to say in reference thereto that I have never in my life owned or had an interest in a gambling game. Neither have I ever been a patron of one. This your reporter could have easily ascertained, and I regret that my name should have been used in this manner. Very respectfully,

T. CUDDY.

[Mr. Fonck writes a communication retracting all he stated to a reporter of THE TIMES, relative to the supposed faro game in Rose Block conducted by Mr. Cuddy. Mr. Fonck is a "dunderhead."—ED. TIMES.]

STATE AND COAST.

Burglaries at Truckee are attributed to tramps.

The Chinese Vice-Consul is at Petaluma, it is supposed, to investigate the Bloomfield outrages against the Chinese.

The longshoremen strike at Tacoma is seriously interfering with the commerce of that town, ships having to remain waiting, at a heavy expense, for a crew to load with.

The Postal Telegraph polemen and the Northern Pacific Railway employés do not seem to be in accord, although it is given out that Mr. Mackay has secured the right of way along the railroad lines. As fast as the postal men dig a hole the railroad men fill it up. An injunction will probably be obtained to-day.

The Dominion Government expedition, sent to the west coast of Vancouver island to investigate the fishing banks, has returned to Victoria. They report the existence of large banks of black cod, herring and other fish. In one location they found cod of the Gadus family. Black cod is found in deep water, five and six miles from shore.

A JOURNEY FROM SAN DIEGO TO LOS ANGELES.

By Way of the Coast Road, Through Oceanside, San Juan, Santa Ana and Anaheim—San Diego's Boom Dispassionately Considered; also the Country and Towns Hitherward.

Before leaving San Diego it might be well to note a few particulars regarding the boom that is in progress there, and the causes that chiefly led to the commencement of the present activity observable throughout the city. In some respects the present San Diego boom, although extensive within the city limits, may be described as

and only observable as such, and bearing only upon such interests as are thereby affected, directly or indirectly. The building trades are in full employment and the hotels and boarding-houses are taxed to their utmost capacity in order to supply accommodation for the greatly increased number of guests. People are crowding into the city from every part of this State, and also from the East; but it is somewhat difficult to see what the greater part of these strangers have in view, or what special object led them so near the Mexican line. The boom does not seem to effect the value of suburban land to any unusual extent, nor do even city allotments change hands so rapidly as might be expected under the conditions of such an extensive building boom as is now going on. Apart from the building trades, hotels, real estate, and pursuits connected therewith, the business of San Diego is only such as could be expected in a city of its size having a common state of prosperity. The streets are crowded with strangers, but few of these are purchasers of merchandise, and seem to limit their expenditures to their hotel and other necessary bills; and, although the tide of humanity still flows toward the bay, there has already begun a considerable ebb. The buildings now in course of construction are mostly in the principal business parts of the chief thoroughfares, and comprise large hotels, warehouses, and other mammoth structures requiring large numbers of skilled and unskilled laborers; but the supply of these men is quite equal to the demand, and the increase of wages is not proportionate with the greater increase of hotel and boarding-house accommodation which has advanced owing to the present scarcity of buildings. Regarding the cause of the present boom, it will be found in the prospect of more direct railway communication with the Atlantic seaboard, and also a remote prospect of lines of steamers being established between San Diego and certain foreign countries, such as the Sandwich Islands and Australia. The county of San Diego is severely handicapped by the hilly and waterless nature of her typography; and this condition of the agricultural and horticultural resources cannot certainly aid to any considerable extent the boom now in progress. When once the tourist is outside the city of San Diego, he at once enters upon the dry and uncultivated mesa lands which stretch in all directions inland. Our road lay northward along the coast; and, at a distance of three miles, the first township we pass is

which has made no progress during the past twenty years, and how the two hundred people that comprise its population manage to earn a living is one of those mysteries that take so much patient research to find out. Immediately to the north of this adobe township is the

with its sandy channel, dry all the summer months; but where, by digging a few feet, fresh water can, at all times, be obtained. We are now entering upon a country altogether

DEVOTED TO STOCK,

and from here to the fertile plains bordering upon the Santa Ana river the land may be considered untilled. At Old San Diego the railroad bends due eastward, and the wagon road crosses it at right angles, taking a nearer cut. A succession of sandy valleys, canyons, and mesas succeeded each other for about ten miles by road, when we reached a depot of the railroad used for shipping cattle. We here find that the road is shorter to this point than the rail by about eight miles, and then continues nearly parallel with the iron road for about thirty-five miles farther to Oceanside, where the line leaves the coast altogether and enters the San Luis Rey valley. From the cattle depot before mentioned, a few miles brings us to a watering place on a mesa overlooking the ocean. There are about a hundred houses in the township, most of them newly built, and intended as the temporary abodes of sea bathers during the season. Five miles more over a sandy soil brings us to a new settlement of families from the East. There are here thirty houses all just finished or in process of construction. Twelve miles farther is the largest and last of these San Diego county, watering places, and we are now forty-five miles from the bay city. There is no cultivation here except a few garden plants, and the watering of them is attended with some difficulty, owing to the depth of the wells from which the water is drawn. A choice of roads now presents itself. The traveler may either proceed by way of the town of San Luis Rey or take the shorter but heavier road along the beach. We chose the latter; passed around a large lagoon near the mouth of the San Luis Rey river and crossed a salt water creek. Three miles of the sandy beach brings us again to a mesa road, and we ascend a gentle slope and enter upon the area of Santa Margarita rancho, which is one of the largest and least occupied of any upon this coast. The direct road from San Luis Rey is here joined, and eight miles from the beach brings us to the homestead which is occupied by a Mexican and seven Chinamen. This is uneven and uninviting in the extreme; but the whole rancho is enclosed with a barbed wire fence. The road through the entire "grant" is firm and good, but there is no surface water in the entire stretch of country, and only here and there a belt of trees, chiefly sycamore. Leaving this rancho, the road leads again to the beach, and passes about eight or nine miles between high cliffs and the surf. Large numbers of cattle browse here upon the herbage bordering on the road, and the passage through among them is at times difficult. The ranch house is not in sight, but we come upon it near to the San Juan river. There are about 10,000 cattle upon this rancho besides sheep, and the grounds of the homestead are cultivated in orchards and gardens. We now cross the San Juan river and enter the town of

SAN JUAN.

This is entirely an old Mexican town, showing many signs of decay. The old mission house is a complete ruin, and most of the houses are of adobe material. From this township to the country watered by the Santa Ana river is about twenty miles over a bare and barren-looking area for a large part of the way; but this is not so much the fault of natural conditions, as that two Spanish grants are comprised in the area and the land is untilled. We enter now upon the beautiful and extensive orchard-covered areas of and surrounding all in a high state of cultivation and producing in abundance all the fruits and grains common to Southern California. Passing through Anaheim and over the plains, we enter Los Angeles after a journey of 140 miles from San Diego by the road we took and have attempted to describe.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.

Strychnine again invoked to end an Unhappy Existence.

The body of James Ferry was found yesterday at 2 p.m. in a lodging house on the corner of Commercial and Los Angeles streets. A note was discovered, saying he had taken strychnine, and was tired of life. Only 80 cents were found in his pockets. No one who saw his remains was acquainted with him. Papers in his clothes showed that he had been recently in Dakota and nesota.

Coroner McFarland held an inquest last night over his remains, and the jury found a verdict that he came to his death by strychnine. He will be buried by Orr & Sutch this afternoon. He was a man of white hair and beMintwseen 50 and 60 years of age.

BRIEFS.

Theatrical people claim that Los Angeles needs another theater.

The Rowland hotel, at Puente, was opened last Friday night.

No little inquiry exists why there are not more building associations?

The Los Angeles and Damiana base ball clubs have a return game to-day.

Real estate has been sold in Puente within a week to the amount of $9000.

The Orange Growers' Union will have an important meeting on November 10th.

The Baptist bazaar closed last evening, after a successful season of three days.

Work is being actively pushed on the new postoffice building opposite Baker block.

Alhambra has caught the real estate boom since the new hotel has been started there.

Margaret Starkey, and old "chronic," was arrested yesterday for disturbing the peace.

Edward F. Daly, who was arrested Tuesday evening on a charge of petit larceny, was released yesterday by the police.

A reception to the new pastor of Fort street Methodist church is to be given at the church parlors one evening this week.

Frank Murphy was arrested yesterday afternoon on the corner of Aliso and Alameda streets for disturbing the peace.

Filed in the Recorder's office yesterday: Forty-nine deeds, seven mortgages, thirteen satisfactions, and ten miscellaneous papers.

Daniel Villa, a blacksmith, was arrested yesterday for abusing his wife. He left $10 at the police station to guarantee his appearance.

The Long Beach Railroad Company have ordered a new engine built in Pittsburg. One of the old engines was sold a short time ago.

Prof. Ezra S. Carr writes from Pasadena that the story of "Mrs. Carr's good luck" in disposing of an acre off Carmelita for $13,500 is a fiction.

A horse and buggy, apparently abandoned by the owner, on Spring street near Second, were taken in and cared for by the police at a late hour last night.

The reported suicide of ex-policeman Froelich in Chicago is yet unconfirmed. His son in this city says he has received no information to that effect.

F. H. Rogers has finished photographing a set of views of white scale bugs, in all stages of their growth, for the Agricultural department at Washington.

Fred Getman had an altercation with a woman of the town on Los Angeles street last evening and struck her in the face. Fred was lodged in the calaboose.

The west-bound passenger train from Barstow was delayed two hours at Sbord's winery last evening waiting for the out-going freight train, which had a disabled engine.

The fire at 121 N. Spring street on Tuesday morning last destroyed, among other things, the back room occupied by Mrs. Latrondez, with its contents. Loss, $1500. Covered by insurance in the Queen Insurance Company.

Yesterday Robert Lowery was arrested on a charge of grand larceny. Lowery is said to have hired a team of DeTurk's livery stable which he drove to Upper Main street. Here, while intoxicated, he got into another buggy, and drove off; hence his troubles.

There is but One Way.

"What a young giant this city is," said a gentleman just arrived, as he stood near the handsome residence of Wm. Banning and looked to the southwest. "And there is the great highway of improvement" he exclaimed, as he pointed beyond Washington street, taking in Adams and Jefferson in that quarter and resting the eye on the rich green foliage of fruit and orange trees on the Howes tract.

Read! Everybody Read

The statement of the City Engineer in regard to overflow of the river, then look at the county map, and see if it would touch the "South Side" lots of the Electric Railway Homestead Association, on Pico Heights. They are 51 feet above its course.

The People.

The judgment of the public is over whelmingly in favor of the Howes tract with its splendid lots and handsome avenues. We again offer to place these lots, with their charming locality and low price, against the bleak hill-side $1000 lots, now offered to the people. The verdict will be in favor of the Howes tract without any question.

Homes for the Million.

NO GAME OF CHANCE. NO LOTTERY. Every man sees what he buys and buys what he wants, and if not then satisfied, a beautiful lot will be given him if he desires to build a home.

The Sherman Tract

Is located on the south side of Pico st., near the city limits; occupies a commanding elevation which overlooks the surrounding country in every direction; fronts the celebrated Electric Motor Railway on the north, and on the east Magnolia ave., a new street just being opened from Pico to Washington. Among the many choice locations occupying the elevated ridge that stretches from Seventh st. southwesterly to Adams, there is none more desirable than this. The phenomenal growth of the city in its "march to the sea" will soon cover this entire area, and being within ten minutes ride of the postoffice by lightning motor, soon to be running, every lot in this tract must double in value within a few months.

The tract is subdivided into 108 large lots, averaging 50x150 feet, with alleys, all having desirable fronts, and mostly covered with bearing fruits. The prices have been fixed about 25 per cent. below other property of equal value, in order to close the sale within 20 days. Prices range from $200 to $325 per lot. Terms, one-fifth cash, balance in four equal quarterly installments. EIGHT AVERAGE LOTS WILL BE DONATED to persons desiring to build.

Sales will be private and commence on the tract next

Monday, November 1, 1886,

At 10 o'clock a.m., and continue each day at that hour until completed. No sales of lots will be consummated until that day, but selections of lots may be made in advance on application. The office of the owner is with the agents,

Medical.

CONSUMPTION

And all the various diseases of the

HEAD, THROAT AND CHEST,

Including the Eye, Ear and Heart, specially treated by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS,

M. D., M. C. P. S. O.,

275 North Main st., next the Diamond House, Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the Æreon system of practice, which enables us to bring the remedies into direct contact with the diseased part. These are in all cases combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, nervous system and blood.

CONSUMPTION.

The earlier symptoms of this disease are a sense of weariness upon little exercise, a disposition to remain passive and idle, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effect of cold, and a shortness of breath upon moving quickly or ascending a hill or stairs, a slight, hacking cough, with or without expectoration, flying pains throughout the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are worse toward or during the night; slight fever in the afternoon; cold feet and hands, and, in many cases, blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger nails.

The more advanced symptoms are wasting of flesh, diarrhœa, chills and fever, night sweats, expectorations of yellow pus from the ulcers or cavities in the lungs, with or without a depression in the chest, increasing weakness, and at last a closing up of the air passages of the lungs, causing strangulation or suffocation of the patient for want of power to expectorate the mucus from the lungs.

Heretofore the treatment of consumption has been very unsatisfactory, alike to both the physicians and their patients; but, luckily, since the discovery of the Æreon system of practice, a few years ago, thousands of cases have been completely cured, where, had it not been for this system of practice, utter failures to combat the evils of the disease would have continued up to the present time. This system is recommended by the highest authorities, both in Europe and America. By this means, we are enabled to dissolve the tendered mucus in the lungs, ease the cough, facilitate expectoration, contract and heal ulcers and cavities, after all hope of cure by the ordinary method is past.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home, as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless the disease has advanced to the chest and that both lungs are seriously involved. The inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus, and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.
